

SEASON PLANNING BINGO

Use this bingo as a way of preparing for your next season as a classical musician.

For a more detailed preparation, check out FOY's Season Planning for Musicians program!

Determining your main professional goal for the new season	Looking through what programs FOCUS on You offers for classical musicians	Reflecting on your previous season (you can use our free guide)
Creating a financial plan for the next season	Determining one thing that you will say no to	Scheduling time for rest
Making a list of things that went well / didn't go so well in the last season	Finishing a task that you've been putting off for a while	Determining your main personal goal for the new season
Making plans to try out a new hobby	Preparing a schedule for your usual daily activities	Coming up with three new ways to connect with your audience